MAYOR ORDERS "ADS" TAKEN FROM SUBWAY.

Corporation Counsel Informs Him They Were Put Up in Violation of the Law, and Unless Removed by the Company City Employees Will Take Them Down.

RACES OFF AGAIN AT HOT SPRINGS

Heavy Snowstorm Prevents Sport To-Day, and New Card of Entries Are Sent Out for To-Morrow.

Mayor McClellan to-day notified Chairman Calvin Tompkins, of the Municipal Art Commission, that he had received an opinion from Corporation Counsel to the effect that the continued presence of the advertising signs in the Subway was a violation of the law and the agreement between the city and the Interborough Rapid Transit Company. The Mayor sent letters to Borough Presidents Ahern, of Manhattan, and Haffen, of the Bronx, calling their attention to the existence of the illegal signs. He directed that if the signs are not taken down by the operating company within a certain short period, to proceed to their removal with the aid of the Bureau of Engraving.

The Rapid Transit Commission yesterday gave the company a week to remove the illegal privileges which they have sublet for "ads" and slot machines. At a recent meeting of the Commission an opinion from the Corporation Counsel was read in which Mr. Delaney held that the presence of newspaper stands in the stations was not illegal, but that signs, posters, clear stands and slot machines were illegal. The signs and posters have been removed. The Mayor to-day sent a letter to President August Belmont, of the operating company, notifying him that if the slot machines were not taken out of the city would move in the courts for their removal.

SEARCHING FOR CONTRACTOR IN SLEIGH MURDER

Police Alarm Sent Out for George H. Wood, Believed to Be Mysterious Stranger with George Williams, Shot to Death in New Jersey.

VICTIM WAS NOT ROBBED AND MOTIVE IS A MYSTERY

Wood Known to Have Been in Plainfield and Have Driven Daily to Pollack Farm, on Road to Which Crime Was Committed—He Is Missing.

As a result of their investigation into the murder of George Williams, a well-to-do grocer, who was found shot to death in his sleigh near Plainfield, N. J., the Plainfield police have sent out a general alarm for the arrest of George H. Woods, a sub-contractor for the Eagle Iron Works, of No. 536 West One Hundred and Thirty-first street, who Williams was slain while driving a stranger from Watchung to Mrs. Pollack's farm at Mount Horeb, near Warrenville.

Chief of Police Kieley has traced the movements of Wood from the time he registered in his own name at Farmer's Hotel, Plainfield, on Monday afternoon, until he left that town yesterday morning to get a rig to drive to Mrs. Pollack's farm. Wood was last seen leaving the 3:45 P. M. train for this city at Millington station, on the Lackawanna Railroad yesterday. He is a grandson of Mrs. Pollack, and has been driving out to the farm from Plainfield every day since he registered at the hotel.

Chief of Police Kieley has traced the movements of Wood from the time he registered in his own name at Farmer's Hotel, Plainfield, on Monday afternoon, until he left that town yesterday morning to get a rig to drive to Mrs. Pollack's farm. Wood was last seen leaving the 3:45 P. M. train for this city at Millington station, on the Lackawanna Railroad yesterday. He is a grandson of Mrs. Pollack, and has been driving out to the farm from Plainfield every day since he registered at the hotel.

Another link in the chain of evidence against the sub-contractor lies in the fact that he has been staying from his home at No. 128 West One Hundred and Thirty-first street since Monday morning last. His wife and three children had left the apartment on Saturday, but he returned on Monday morning, when he gave his key to Mrs. E. V. B. Smith, a next door neighbor. Then he vanished, and had ample time to arrive at Farmer's Hotel in Plainfield by 8 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The murder of the grocer seems to have been utterly without motive, possibly a wanton freak of homicidal mania. Grocer Williams was urged by his wife to get into the sleigh, and drive him to the Pollack farm. The man was a stranger to the neighborhood, and his bearing was such as to inspire confidence. He promised Williams a liberal fee to take him in his sleigh a distance of scarcely five miles from Watchung.

A number of Plainfield citizens who knew the stranger, said the man was a trolley car driver, and that he was a native of the South. He was a man of about thirty-five or forty years of age, and was of a fair complexion. He was wearing a dark suit, and a light-colored shirt. He was wearing a dark hat, and a light-colored scarf.
